To begin, try answering these three questions!

Q1.

What are you currently passionate about?

Q2.

What makes it so captivating for you?

Q3.

How do you feel when you're doing it?

To Parents/Guardians

Please carefully read the following notes before applying.

1. All content published on the application sheet will be publicly available on the website, so please make sure that no personally identifiable information is included. Pay special attention to ensure that the nickname (the applicant's name displayed on the AWRD site) does not include the applicant's real name.
2. When applying, scan both pages of the application sheet and upload them as JPEG image files.
3. Works that are deemed to infringe on copyrights or be morally inappropriate may not be published. Please make sure to carefully read the 'To Parents/Guardians' page on the AWRD site in advance.

Let's think about the present and gather our thoughts!
